

Are you getting what you want from land?

policy options for competing demands on soil functions

An interactive workshop for EU stakeholders

COPA-COGECA, Rue de Treves 61, Brussels, Belgium

20/10/2016

DRAFT AGENDA

08:30 Registration & Refreshments

09:00 Start of the workshop, chaired by Arwyn Jones, European Commission JRC

09:05 Welcome by our host, Secretary General of COPA-COGECA

09:10 Introduction to the LANDMARK Project, Rachel Creamer, Wageningen University

09:25 Functional land management scenarios, Jan Staes, Univ. Antwerp

09:50 Scope of the workshop, Arwyn Jones, European Commission JRC

10:00 INTERACTIVE SESSIONS: Championing soil functions (led by LANDMARK WP3 Task Groups)

primary productivity | nutrient cycling | water purification & regulation | carbon sequestration | biodiversity

11:00 Coffee

11:15 EU present and future policy perspectives on soil functions, moderated by Arwyn Jones

Soil and ecosystem services Jacques DELSALLE (ENV)	Soil and agriculture Krzysztof SULIMA (AGRI)	Soil-water interaction Elisa VARGAS AMELIN (ENV)
Soil and climate change Simon KAY (CLIMA)	Evangelos KOUMENTAKOS COPA-COGECA	European Parliament (tbc) Estonia Presidency (tbc)

12:30 Lunch

14:00 Video "Who decides on sustainable land management? A common goal, different pathways"

14:10 Feedback from local, regional & national stakeholder workshops, Sylvain Sturel, APCA France

14:25 PARALLEL SESSIONS: What's the dream? Solutions for policy issues?

primary productivity | nutrient cycling | water purification & regulation | carbon sequestration | biodiversity

15:00 OPEN PLENARY DISCUSSION: Dreams or nightmares? What can the Landmark approach deliver - scenarios to support a coordinated approach to soil-friendly EU policy development, data/knowledge needs for EU soil policies? Moderated by Jan Staes, University of Antwerp

15:45 Summing up, Conclusions, Post-meeting report, Arwyn Jones, European Commission JRC

16:00 End of workshop & coffee